

Basic principles of procurement of JSC «Rublyovo-Arkhangelskoye», according to paragraph 1.3. of the Procurement policy of JSC «Rublyovo-Arkhangelskoye»

- Information openness of Procurement
- Equality, fairness, non-discrimination and absence of unreasonable restrictions of competition to Bidders
- Targeted and cost-effective spending of funds for the purchase of Products (if necessary, taking into account the cost of the life cycle of purchased Products) and the implementation of measures aimed at reducing Company's costs
- The absence of restrictions on the admission to participation in Purchase by establishment of immeasurable requirements applicable to Procurement Participants
- Timely and complete satisfaction of needs of Company in supplies \products with an optimum combination of the price, quality and reliability
- Obtaining the best effect taking into account the ratio of the cost of production of the product (final product, including its life cycle) with the income after its implementation (taking into account factors such as time period, guarantees, the possibility of obtaining compensation (increased fines) in case of breach of obligations, operating costs necessary to convert the purchased products into final product, price)
- Ensuring competitiveness of offers of participants of Procurement procedure for the purpose of obtaining by Company the best conditions of delivery of supplies\products
- Ensuring participation of small and medium-sized businesses in the Company's Purchases in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation
- Preventing corruption and other abuses in procurement